

Chinese New Year

I had a great Chinese New Year! On Chinese New Year's, I went to the flower market. I drank a lot of coconut juice and ate a lot of chips.

On Chinese New Year's Day. I got a lot of red pockets. I watched the lion dances in the afternoon. I watched the parade at night.

On the second day of Chinese New Year, I went to the airport and flew to Korea. In Korea, I went to the Spa Green Land. It was a very comfortable place. On the next day, I went snowboarding and slid on the snow. After that day, I was sick. I got a high fever. When I came back to Hong Kong, I needed to see the doctor. That was a bad day!
