Notes for the students during the exams

A. Exam venue discipline

1. The students must take the exams according to the timetable set by the school.
2. No extra time will be given if students arrive at school late without a valid reason.
3. Early leave will not be permitted if no special reasons are given.
4. Students will sit according to their class numbers. The seats will be rearranged in single rows.
5. The students are prohibited to talk with their classmates during the exam. If there are any questions, students can ask the teachers.

B. The makeup exams and checking of exam papers

1. Absentees will take the makeup exams on 15th, 16th and 19th June; the marks obtained will not be deducted. If students cannot take the exam on the above dates, the final result will be calculated using the other two terms only.
2. The exam papers will be checked on 20th and 21st June. For P.1 to P.4 and P.6 students, they should take the exam papers home for their parents to sign after checking. The exam papers should be returned to subject teachers the next day.

C. Arrangement for bad weather

If the Education Bureau announces all primary schools closed in the morning due to a typhoon or other bad weather, the exams will be postponed to the next day.

Arrangements for uploading of Year 20-21 and 21-22 exam papers onto eclass

The exam papers and suggested answers for the Chinese Reading (and Listening), General English and Writing, Mathematics and General Studies have been uploaded onto eclass. Parents and students can download the exam papers by following the steps below:

1. Log onto eclass with student identity.
2. Enter 'Classroom Area'
3. Click 'Shared Files'
4. Click 'Public Files'
5. Click 'Past Papers'
6. Choose 'English', 'Chinese', 'Maths' or 'General Studies' folder
7. Click on the past exam papers that you want to read (PDF format)

Since the syllabus may not be the same every year, the past papers in the previous two years may not have the same coverage.
